Our award-winning museum quarter is located in the heart of Frankfurt’s historic district and consists of the 800 year-old Saalhof as well as the new exhibition complex opened in 2017.

Young Museum
Saalhof, level 1 | 30 – 45 minutes
A space for children, young people and families. Its interactive exhibitions are always changeable. Weekly workshops allow visitors to try out their handicraft skills, or engage every day life around 1900 in historical play.

Sonnemann Hall
Saalhof, level 1
The modern event space, with up to 1,400 seats and a range of design possibilities across the river main, the Kunsthalle (art gallery) and the Saalhof – the Sonnemann Hall offers concerts, museum events and can also be rented.

Stauffer Chapel
Saalhof, level 0
The Stauffer Chapel, with the Stauffer chapel, is the oldest standing building in Frankfurt. Its display is to its purpose as the oldest copies of the famous Holy Roman Imperial regalia. The narrow chapel interior, an arrow slit with original wall plaster from the 12th century, was rediscovered in 2011 during renovation.

Stauffer Age
Saalhof, levels 0 – 1 | 30 – 45 minutes
The permanent exhibition, "Stauffer Age" details the early history of Frankfurt around 800 years ago. The Saalhof, now part of the museum, was once residence for the Holy Roman emperors. The "Stauffer Harbour", a highlight in the heart of the museum quarter, was rediscovered in 2011 during museum construction.

Snow Globe
Exhibition building, level 3 | 60 minutes
Views of modern-day Frankfurt from the perspective of its residents. The 30-minute film of Frankfurt, City Lab portraits created in collaboration with Frankfurt residents, the original City Lab and the digital reminiscence project "Library of the Generations".

Frankfurt Once?
Exhibition building, level 1 | 60 minutes
Five thematically opening exhibitions present the history and development of Frankfurt. Townscapes, 15th – 17th centuries, 16th – 17th centuries, 18th – 19th centuries, and Global City in 20th centuries. Treuer brothers chronicle the changes between tradition and modernity in the city since the 19th century.

Toll Tower
Saalhof, access level | 30 – 45 minutes
The Toll Tower from 1446 is a landmark on the banks of the river Main. The tower once belonged to a system of gates in the town line of Frankfurt. The permanent exhibition inside offers glimpses of life on the Main, past and present. Still live towers are accessible via the almost 500 year-old spiral staircase.

Golden Scales
In Frankfurt’s old historic district, the HMF has furnished two floors of the Haus zur Goldenen Waage (House of the Golden Scales) in 17th century style, highlighted by the roof garden “Belvederchen” with a view of the Frankfurt Cathedral. Visitors may be booked as part of a guided tour through the visitor service of the Historical Museum. Markt 5, 60549 Frankfurt.

Collectors’ Museum
Saalhof, levels 1 – 3 | 60 minutes
Frankfurt is a city of collectors and donors. Twelve formerly private collections from the 15th – 20th centuries provide an unusual introduction to the city history. A family trail makes entry into the exhibitions accessible for children and parents alike.

Library
Saalhof, level 4
The museum library and media centre, with around 140,000 titles on topics related to the museum, are available as a reference library to all interested museum visitors. To make an appointment please call: +49 69 212-36181.

Sculptures on the Museum Square
Level 0
Figurative allegories, gods and stone figures from Frankfurt gardens of the 17th – 19th centuries set in 1.2 meters of the new exhibition building. Scultures were carefully paid to viewing angles at their installation, the additional sculptures and figures for pedestrians coming up the stairs toward them.

Special Exhibition
Exhibition building, level 2 | 90 minutes
Several times a year, major special exhibitions relating to cultural and historical topics are on display here. The city and its history are always the focus of these presentations.
Welcome!
The Historical Museum Frankfurt (HMF) is the modern city museum of the Main metropolis and one of the largest in Europe.

Eight exhibitions spanning 6,000 m² present topics from the past, present and future of the city. Special exhibitions and the City Lab are dedicated to issues of current interest.

HMF locations also include the museum rooms in the Haus zur Goldenen Waage (House of the Golden Scales) – one of the most beautiful timber-framed Renaissance structures in the new Frankfurt historic district.

The HMF is a museum for the whole family and is largely barrier-free. It attracts to the museum and participatory, and welcomes all visitors.

All exhibition rooms have modern ventilation and filter systems that exchange and clean room air.

The HMF participates in the initiative “Respect! No place for Racism”, and is committed to the core values of the city of Frankfurt: respect and diversity.

Friends & Supporters
The association Friends of the HMF contributes to the museum, and offers exclusive events and cultural excursions. Artists of volunteers also enhance the museum shop. www.freunde-hmf.de
